The Frenchman loves his native wine,

The German loves his beer,

The Englishman loves his 'alf and 'alf

Because it brings good cheer,

The Irishman loves his "whiskey straight,"

Because it gives him dizziness;

The American has no choice at all,

So he drinks the whole darned business.

TOASTS

THE FIVE REASONS.

*If on my theme I rightly think
There are five reasons why men drink,
Good wine, a friend, because I'm dry,
Or else I may be by and by,
Or any other reason why.*

*Then with wine, as is due, let the honors be paid,
Whilst I give my hand, heart and head,
"Here's to her, the fond mother, dear partner, kind maid,
Who first taught me to love, woo and wed!"
—Thomas Hood.*

*Here's to all good fellows
In this world and the next;
I drink you a toast tonight—
Good Fellowship my text.*

*Not the fellow who takes your hand
In an idling hour you know;
Not the fellow who slaps your back
As long as the high-balls flow;
But the chap that speaks a kindly word
When the world is running wrong—
The fellow that grips your hand like Hell
And tells you life is a song.
What if we know that sucker lies?
What if he knows it, too?
There are times in life when a friend that lies
Is the only friend that is true.*

*Cavil and rant, ye prudes who will,
Of the evils of wine and gin—
But, somehow, the real, true things we feel Leak out when the wine leaks in.
The fool is a fool, the cad is a cad,
Whichever God means him to be,
But the man that's a man won't forget he's a man
Though he's out on a Hell-of-a-spre.
So drink to this toast from your hearts,
my friends,
From a heart to a heart let it run;
Here's to good fellows all over the world,
Their health, and God bless every one.*
